BENEDICTION

THE REVEREND HAROLD A. BOSLEY

Dean, Divinity School, Duke University

THE HONORARY DEGREES

1924 H of

DOCTOR OF DIVINITY — HAROLD AUGUSTUS BOSLEY

Eminent as a Christian minister, for some years preacher and pastor in two of our leading cities, lecturer before conferences and councils of his own and other denominations and before college and university audiences, presently retiring Dean, Divinity School, Duke University, author of a number of volumes pertaining to the heritage of the Christian Faith and vital issues confronting Christendom today.

His record as teacher, preacher, author, and administrator demonstrates that as minister-elect of the First Methodist Church of Evanston, he is about to enter upon a preaching ministry of unusual significance.

Presented by James F. Oates, Sr., Life Trustee of Northwestern University

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE — SIR HUGH WILLIAM BELL CAIRNS

Surgeon, noted for his contributions to the treatment of diseases and injuries of the nervous system; stimulating teacher and investigator; a Rhodes Scholar from Australia; honored by his country for distinguished military service in two wars; a personality characterized by the qualities of kindness, loyalty, and judgment; the Nuffield Professor of Surgery, Oxford University.

Presented by Dr. Loyal Davis, Grunow Professor of Surgery and Chairman of Department of Surgery

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS — MERLE EUGENE CURTI

Frederick Jackson Turner Professor of History at the University of Wisconsin. A distinguished historian, inspirational teacher, and eloquent humanitarian. Professor Curti's studies in the history of American thought have not only opened new vistas to a generation of scholars, but have revealed the richness of our nation's cultural heritage. As a student he has brought new techniques to the study of American history; as a teacher he has instilled countless disciplines with his own respect for the truth. He stands today as a leading interpreter of America's past, and as a fearless guide to its course in the future.

Presented by Ray A. Billington, Professor of History

DOCTOR OF LAWS — PERCY BERNARD ECKHART

Outstandingly successful in industry and the practice of law, this active man of affairs has found time for promotion of enterprises in the realms of art and music. As vice-president and trustee of the Art Institute of Chicago, member of the Chicago Symphony Association, and chairman of the Ravinia Festival Association, he has demonstrated that the business man may make generous contributions to the diffusion of culture and the enrichment of gracious living.

Presented by John W. Beattie, Professor of Music Education and Dean of the School of Music

NINETY-SECOND COMMENCEMENT

DOCTOR OF LAWS — FRED DOW FAGG, JR.

Lawyer, economist, and educator, who served with distinction as a teacher in the Schools of Law and Commerce of Northwestern University, as an administrator in the offices of Dean of the School of Commerce and Educational Vice-President and Dean of Faculties of the University, and as an executive in the position of President of the University of Southern California since June, 1947. A pioneer in the field of air law and a founder and Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Air Law, he has held many public positions of honor and responsibility, including that of Director of Air Commerce in the United States Department of Commerce, consulting expert for the Civil Aeronautics Authority, member of the Illinois Aeronautics Commission, and Chairman of the California Aeronautics Commission.

Presented by Kenneth F. Burgess, Trustee of Northwestern University and President of the Board
